

Information Services Latin America (ISLA) provides a selection of articles drawn from major English-language newspapers, covering political, economic and social developments in Latin America. Included are selected opinion columns, analytical pieces, significant letters and book reviews, as well as relevant editorials.

KEY TO NEWSPAPER ABBREVIATIONS

CSM Christian Science Monitor
FT Financial Times
LAT Los Angeles Times
MH Miami Herald
ML Manchester Guardian/Le Monde
NYT New York Times
WP Washington Post
WSJ Wall Street Journal

Information Services Latin America (ISSN 0046-8401) is published monthly in annual volumes.

Information Services Latin America
ISLA
Staff & Associates:
Director –Karen Crump
Central Amer. & Rio de la Plata – Luis Solano
Cuba –Martin Bourque Editor –Elizabeth Patelke

The articles reprinted herein are copyrighted by their respective publishers and are reprinted with their permission (or permission pending). The original publishers retain the copyright to these articles and they may not be reproduced without the permission of the copyright holders

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

- Subscriptions are available covering all of Latin America or any regional or country sections (s).
- The Latin America General section accompanies all complete subscriptions.
- The Caribbean Basin General section accompanies complete subscriptions to the Central America and Caribbean service, as well as the full service.
- Back issues are available from July 1970.
- This service is available on microfilm (on semi-annual reels.)

ISLA is an independent organization, fiscally sponsored by the Agape Foundation, dedicated to providing research and information in the interest of social justice around the world.

Visit the ISLA web-site (www.igc.org/isla) to find original articles on Latin America.

isla

Information Services Latin America

P.O. Box 6103

Albany CA 94706

(510) 996-2318

isla@lmi.net www.igc.org/isla